

Honeywell nominated Warren Woods Public Schools for the Economic Leadership in Energy Efficiency Award.

Honeywell

Leaders Accepting the Award:
Jamie Stottlemeyer – Director of Facilities & Transportation
Neil Cassabon – Business Manager

Project Name and Location: Warren
Woods Public Schools, Warren, MI

Project Size (2 Phases): $7,300,000

5-Year Guarantee

Annual Saving Guarantee: $420,000

Total Savings Guarantee: Over $2,200,000

Year was the project implemented: 2008

List of ECMs: Boiler Replacements, Fenestration Improvements, Chiller Replacement, New Cooling Tower, Expand Existing Energy Management System, Lighting Upgrades (Interior & Exterior), New Ceilings, Occupancy Controls, New Motors, Skylight Reglazing, Variable Frequency Drives, New Windows, New Doors, Water Retrofits, New Roof, New Domestic Hot water System and a New Pool Boiler

Additional Project Highlights: Since the energy conservation improvements were implemented district-wide by Honeywell the Warren Woods Public School district now has 4 of its 7 educational facilities “Energy Star” rated.

Honeywell